Dialogue between HKAGE Student Members and
Community Leaders

Student members of the Hong Kong Academy for Gifted Education (HKAGE) represented the youth of Hong Kong to share their ideas with prominent community leaders in various leadership events in mid March.

Two students were invited to pose questions and express views on the 2009-10 Budget in Youth Dialogue Session with Financial Secretary on 18 March, 2009. In the meeting, which was organized by the Hong Kong Federation of Youth Groups, Mr Tsang shared his work experience and relationship with colleagues in the HKSAR Government. He reminded students in this speech to treasure every learning or work experience in facing the challenges brought by the financial tsunami.

On 19 March 2009, other student members of the HKAGE attended the Opening Ceremony of the Hang Seng Bank – Leaders to Leaders Lecture Series 2009. Officiating guests of the event, Dr Rosanna Wong of the Hong Kong Federation of Youth Groups, Professor Richard Wong of the University of Hong Kong and Mr Raymond Or of the Hang Seng Bank shared their experience and views on leadership.

To prepare these youth leaders to compete and excel on the global stage, students were presented with a lecture session “Information and Media” by Mr Qian Gang of the University of Hong Kong to help students acquire a more comprehensive and thorough understanding of the development of Mainland China.
