Brief introduction to Speaker:

Ms Joyce Kwok Yin-mei is the mother of two gifted children, both of whom are studying in the university now. She was a full-time mother when her children were toddlers.

Being a principal for seventeen years, Joyce has successfully applied the humanistic education theories of Carl Rogers at CCC Kei San Secondary School. Her school is recognised by the Education Bureau as an academically “Valued Added” school for ten consecutive years, and winning the “Caring School” Award for four consecutive years. Joyce is also a part-time lecturer at HKU and CUHK, teaching gifted education and other teacher training courses.
