Are You Gifted??? If YOU ARE, we want you! Join our Gifted Youths Program!

What is this?

This is a two-year structured program initiated and fully sponsored by the Hong Kong Polytechnic University for Gifted Students at secondary levels in Hong Kong. The program will involve students attending a series of activities (in-camp team building and leadership training, field-expert seminars and lectures, laboratory and plant visits, electronic design classes, electronic boards fabrication, a Chinese Mainland service trip etc.) a total of 1 week in the first year and approximately 2 weeks in the second year. Students who completed the course will be awarded a certificate for their achievements by the Hong Kong Polytechnic University.

Who are we?

The organizer and host of this program is the Department of Electronic and Information Engineering, Hong Kong Polytechnic University (Website: www.eie.polyu.edu.hk). The program is co-serviced by the Center for Cross-Cultural Service Ltd., Hong Kong.

What you will get out of this program ...

- ☛ an awareness of the energy shortage and environmental issues that our world is facing;
- ☛ an exposure to current technologies in alternative and renewable energy sources;
- ☛ an in-depth knowledge about solar energy harnessing and its electronics peripheral;
- ☛ a hands-on experience in building the electronic circuits for solar panel;
- ☛ a head-start leadership and team-building development with other Gifted Youths;
- ☛ an understanding of the underprivileged of the society;
- ☛ a sense of gratification derived from helping the underclass of the society;
- ☛ a certificate from Hong Kong Polytechnic University for your contributions;
- ☛ and most importantly, an experience that you will never forget
