

Inside Out Series: Social Relationship II (F2IOS010W)

Introduction of the Workshop

Living in a socialised society, we all need to know how to collaborate and communicate effectively with other people. Do you think you can establish harmonious relationships with others, get along well with them, and handle interpersonal conflicts effectively? What skills are needed for building good interpersonal relationships?

In this second workshop of the series, you will uncover the power of empathy in establishing rapport, making and keeping the social relationship with your peers. Meanwhile, through experiential learning activities, you will understand your traits, discuss social skills between peers, and coping strategies to deal with peer pressure.

Introduction of the Series

The 'Inside Out Series' is a workshop series related to affective education, it covers topics like self-concept, self-management and social relationships of gifted students. This series aims at fostering gifted students' whole-person development from the inside out by enabling them to understand themselves, enhance their self-management skills, and eventually build positive social relationships with the outside world. In the workshops of the Social Relationship Series, you will learn how you are influenced by conformity, the difference between healthy and unhealthy perfectionism, some emotional, stress and time management skills etc. you will be able to learn various topics relating to social relations, such as social styles, communication skills, empathy, getting along with your peers, family and teachers, conflict management, etc. If you are interested in understanding social relations, don't miss this opportunity. You are also encouraged to complete the whole series for mastering the social techniques progressively.
