Intended Learning Outcomes

Upon completion of the programme, participants should be able to:

1. establish a basic understanding of the legal knowledge in the community through the rule by law, the Common Law System and Hong Kong's Jury System;
2. explain the development and evolution of the Hong Kong legislative process from the Colony to the SAR;
3. enhance their civic consciousness and civic responsibility through concerning various legal issues in Hong Kong.

◆ Introduction

"Common Law? Civil law? Precedents? Government's Bill? Private Members' Bill? The Three Readings? Solicitors? Barristers? The Court System?" These are terms that we often come across but never quite understand. In this talk, students from the Faculty of Law, The University of Hong Kong (HKU) will demystify these concepts and bring with them a presentation on the topic of "Hong Kong's Legal System".

Students from the Faculty of Law of The University of Hong Kong (HKU) would design and conduct this talk under the guidance of the Faculty of Law supervisor and the scheme of the Rule of Law Education Project (ROLE) which is one of the Knowledge Exchange initiatives of the faculty. Their vision is to enhance Hong Kong citizens' understanding of the rule of law and its crucial role as the foundation of Hong Kong's identity and institutions.
