Application Deadline
27 Jul 2022 12:00 n.n.

◆ Intended Learning Outcomes

Upon completion of the programme, participants should be able to:

1. equip with basic acting skills, such as delivery of lines, projection and characterisation;
2. learn to create a script using devised theatre and improvisation;
3. learn to put on a play with the aid of basic props and costumes;
4. take part in a school production in either an acting or backstage role.

◆ Introduction

The course consists of TWO phases. Phase 1 will be a series of arts appreciation and hands-on activities in which students will acquire knowledge and experience in different aspects of theatre.

Recap of Phase 1 activities:

- From Page to Stage®
- digiAFTEC™ Young Person's Guide to the Theatre (online content plus live workshops)
- One Day in the Theatre - Acting or Stage Production Workshop

Phase 2: Creative Box

Students will put knowledge acquired in phase 1 in practice by putting on a school production. They will watch a video version of AFTEC's production of Walking the Amazon and learn to create their own version of the play using devised theatre and improvisation, under the guidance of AFTEC's professional native-speaking drama tutor.

They will write their own script and prepare for a Work-in-progress Presentation with the aid of basic props and costumes. The focus of the programme is to cultivate students' creativity and imagination and enable them to take part in a school production in either an acting or backstage role.

The selection of participants is based on students' performance in the assessment throughout the programmes in Phase 1. The tentative schedule for Phase 2 is as below.
