Intended Learning Outcomes

Upon completion of the programme, participants should be able to:

1. develop a better idea of their academic path before selecting their main subjects at S4;
2. explore subjects that are out of the DSE electives to encourage independent learning ;
3. develop and enhance competence in their areas of interest and aspiration through nourishing the habit of planning extracurricular engagements and goals;
4. broaden horizons and learn how to build their personal profile for academic use;
5. expand their personal and professional networks.

◆ Introduction

This programme is co-organized by HKAGE and Access Abroad Hong Kong. Have you ever felt confused while choosing electives or planning for university? Have you ever thought about overseas study but don't know how to start under the information explosion? Learning Aboard Mentorship Programme (LAMP) may give you some hints.

Through small group mentorship, workshops and talks from mentors studying in UK universities including University of Cambridge. Students will be encouraged to develop independent learning, build up academic pathways and profiles and to be well prepared for future study from local or overseas.

Organized by HKAGE and Access Abroad Hong Kong.
