Instructors from Humanitarian Education Centre
Hong Kong Red Cross

Application Deadline

9 Dec 2022 5:00 p.m.

Intended Learning Outcomes

Upon completion of the programme, participants should be able to:

1. experience situations faced by children in war by participating in simulation regarding humanitarian challenges;
2. perceive humanitarian consequences brought by war;
3. ponder ways to practice humanitarian actions in daily life.

◆ Introduction

In an unusual 90-minute journey, you will step onto a ruthless battlefield; you will experience the taste of despair, as well as the glimpse of hope.

In a world of armed conflicts and hostility, you constantly face fear, pain and hunger. Suddenly, a group of guerrillas barge into your hideout. If you stay, you may be forced to be a child soldier, who will face endless coldblooded killings and tortures. If you flee, where else can you go?

Being in complete darkness, will you get the chance to see a shred of light? Who will be there to lend you a helping hand?

The Red Cross Humanitarian Education Centre of The Hong Kong Red Cross Headquarters is the first exploration zone on the war in Asia. Through a series of authentic experience and stories, the horror and misery of war are revealed in front of the participants, which enable them to understand war is not far-reaching, everyone can help regardless of their background, and everyone can take humanitarian actions to address the challenges.
