Dr Richard Kai-Cheung LAU
Clinical Psychologist, HKAGE

Intended Learning Outcomes

Application Deadline

2 December 2022

12:00 noon

Upon completion of the programme, student members should be able to:

1. understand the concept and benefits of integrity, law abidingness, and national identity;
2. be willing to further promote the levels of integrity, law abidingness, and national identity;
3. be willing to develop those undeveloped or underdeveloped integrity, law abidingness, and national identity; and
4. understand ways to promote or develop integrity, law abidingness, and national identity.

◆ Introduction of the Talk

In addition to having higher talents or competencies than their peers in music, sports, visual or performing arts, gifted students may also excel in different areas of ability, such as intelligence, creativity, leadership, etc. Therefore, gifted people who share the values of good integrity, law-abidingness and national identity are more able to make more and greater contributions to the region they live in or country they belong to. In this talk, the speaker will explain the concepts of integrity, law-abidingness and national identity, and ways to enhance these values. There will be a question and answer session before the end of the lecture.
