2. Understand the development of visual effects technology;
3. Through the speaker experience, learn how to cultivate creativity;
4. Enhance career aspirations in VFX related industries.

◆ Introduction

In the digital age, the scale and technology of Hong Kong film production have changed significantly. Audiences are also becoming more demanding on the stories and visual effects. Recently, “Warriors of Future”, the local produced Sci-Fi Movie received overwhelming response. Its preparation took more than 10 years, and put lots of resources into story, design, production and technology.

We are happy to have Mr Ng Yuen Fai who is the director of the movie and Dr Mike Wong who’s the visual effect expert being our speakers. During the talk, they will share the challenge of movie production, how to transform from a visual effect artist to a director, the career path and the future technology in the movie industry.
