Intended Learning Outcomes

Upon completion of the programme, participants should be able to:

1. describe the common Chinese dance props and costumes;
2. perform some basic movements of Chinese dance;
3. recount the classic scenes of “Romance of Three Kingdoms” performed in the theatre;
4. appreciate the artistic conception and aesthetic feeling of the dance movements.

◆ Introduction

HKDC is a non-profit organization that aims to promote Chinese dance with a contemporary artistic vision and Hong Kong characteristics through education and interactive performances.

The dancers will perform the story of the Three Kingdoms in "All about the Three Kingdoms", recreating classic scenes such as "The Oath of Brotherhood in the Peach Garden", "The Empty Fort Strategy" and "The Battle of Red Cliffs". During the performance, dancers will dance with a variety of Chinese dance props such as swords, fans and water sleeves.

Through the lively performance, guided tour and interactive session, students will learn how to appreciate dance and learn some basic movements of Chinese dance to enhance their understanding of the art.
