◆ Introduction

Solo drama refers to a type of art form in which the performer performs alone on stage for the audience. Solo drama comprised of one actor solely and is based on the real-life experiences of the performer. Combining drama therapy and theatre performances, solo drama explores different themes, such as the role of women in modern society, identity, happiness, family, life, etc. Have you ever thought of transforming your experience into a script, standing on stage to voice out your dreams and struggles?

Have you ever thought of exploring the theatre, challenging yourself, and rehearsing a play on the spot? Jen Lam, who are a theatre director, actor and director, will lead students to explore solo drama and theatre. In the workshop, students will explore themselves, create their own scripts, and express their true stories. Having studied acting in USA and Australia, Jen Lam has directed and performed in many solo dramas. About Jen Lam (林珍真):
