Death is Inevitable – Funeral Director's Daily Life

Mr Frankie LAU

Funeral Director, Keep It Simple - Minimal Funeral Limited

Application Deadline

10 Oct 2023

12:00 noon

Intended Learning Outcomes

Upon completion of the programme, participants should be able to:

1. gain a general understanding of the situation of funeral services in Hong Kong;
2. describe the job nature of funeral practitioners and the required personal attributes and attitudes;
3. reflect the meaning of life through breaking the myth and taboo of death.

◆ Introduction

In the past, people were very taboo about the funeral industry, because the fear of death stemmed from the inability to grasp the world after death; moreover, there were many customs and ceremonies which made it traditional and closed. The funeral director is alleviating the hesitation of the living when dealing with the affairs of the deceased. In this talk, a current funeral director will share his working experience and case-sharing in the funeral industry in Hong Kong.

The speaker Mr Frankie LAU is a funeral director from Keep It Simple, holding the professional qualification of Certificate for Training of Funeral Services Planners organised by National Funeral Directors Association (NFDA).

Keep It Simple - Minimal Funeral Limited is a funeral social enterprise, also one of the licensed undertakers of burials in Hong Kong, promoting simple and solemn funeral services by reducing unnecessary procedures and expenses,
