Intended Learning Outcomes

Upon completion of the programme, participants should be able to:

1. Analyze and evaluate STEAM ventures of different companies thoroughly;
2. Enhance leadership abilities via collaborative team projects;
3. Build confidence in being a future leader in STEAM.

◆ Introduction

How can STEAM (Science, Technology, Engineering, Arts, Mathematics) be applied in the realms of innovative technology and business? How can we leverage STEAM knowledge to create advantages with innovative technologies? Building from the foundation of phase 1, students will be able to research on, analyze, and present their ideas in STEAM innovation via collaborative team projects.
