◆ Gifted Programme Introduction

“The more you like yourself, the less you are like anyone else, which makes you unique.”

—Walt Disney

The Common Core Programme (for new members) - Know More about Giftedness – aims to introduce fundamental theories about giftedness and common characteristics found in gifted students. This online learning course consists of four units, including “Understanding Your Giftedness”, “Whole-person Development of Gifted Students”, “Affective Characteristics and Emotional Management of Gifted Students” and “Well-being of the Gifted and the Common Good”, that cover cognitive characteristics, whole person development, affective characteristics, and the well-being of gifted students. Each unit includes an exit test to reinforce your understanding of the topics.
