Legal Studies Course (Level II)

Future Advocate Training Programme

Ms WONG Ying Kei Vivian (Barrister-at-law)

Application Deadline
20 Nov 2023 12:00 noon

Result Release
24 Nov 2023

Intended Learning Outcomes

Upon completion of the programme, participants should be able to:

1. acquire a general understanding of the legal system and the roles of different legal professionals in Hong Kong;
2. gain various analytical insights into the injustice and barriers faced by vulnerable individual in Hong Kong;
3. demonstrate enhanced advocacy skills, such as empathetic listening, problem analysis and research, and written and oral communication;
4. develop an empathy to disadvantaged groups in Hong Kong through legal advocating.

◆ Introduction

An advocate is anyone who supports and empowers others by letting their voices be heard, defending their rights and interests, and debunking myths and stigmas associated with their differences. Through interactive thematic activities, students will be guided to explore from multiple perspectives the fundamental rights and unique needs of 3 specific groups of vulnerable persons in Hong Kong: children and juveniles, persons with mental health challenges, and persons with different communication abilities. Students will further develop and consolidate essential skills, attitudes and competencies for effective communication and advocacy through a range of practical activities.
