Humanities Workshop (Level II):

Social Innovators: Reducing Kitchen Waste for a Sustainable Future

Instructors from Fullness Social Enterprises Society Limited

Application Deadline

11 Dec 2023

Result Release

12 Dec 2023

Intended Learning Outcomes

At the end of the programme, students should be able to:

1. illustrate the social challenges caused by kitchen waste.
2. understand the Sustainable Development Goals related to environmental protection and be able to apply them in daily lives.
3. execute creativity and innovation skills to solve social problems.
4. adopt a more sustainable lifestyle as a change maker.

◆ Introduction

In the light of the alarming increase of municipal solid waste discarded by the public, the Municipal Solid Waste \(MSW\) Charging policy is expected to become effective starting from 1 Apr 2024. As future leaders, what can we do to address the social problems and make a positive impact?

This programme is designed to inspire and equip student members who are passionate about creating a sustainable future through innovative solutions. Your journey starts by meeting and learning from experts in the field of social innovation, followed by hands-on experience in upcycling kitchen waste into valuable resources, learning how to turn waste into treasure, and using a mobile app to collaborate with peers and earn rewards.

Please join us on this exciting journey to become a social innovator!
