◆ Gifted Programme Introduction

This leadership workshop is one of the core programmes of the Leadership Training Programme Series. It is designed for gifted students who aspire to create positive social change. With a focus on developing self-awareness and emotional intelligence, the workshop combines the exploration of community leaders' character and values, engagement with social leaders driving impactful changes and hands-on project development and field visits. This approach allows gifted students to delve into the world of social change, gaining a deeper understanding of their capacity to effect positive differences in this city.

This programme content is identical to F1LEA008W2, applicants who submit repeated applications will not be admitted to the programme.
