Upon completion of the programme, the participants should be able to:

1. Identify the historical origins of Nunchaku and acquire its basic techniques and movements;
2. Experience a sense of accomplishment through practicing and performing Nunchaku with people of different ages and backgrounds;
3. Cultivate a stronger sense of self-confidence, resilience, perseverance and enrich their physical and overall well-being;
4. Demonstrate a heightened awareness and appreciation for cultural heritage and the cultural significance of Nunchaku.

◆ Gifted Programme Introduction

The programme aims to promote cultural heritage and pride by introducing HKAGE members to the history, cultural value, and significance of Nunchaku. It provides experiential learning opportunities for members to master basic Nunchaku techniques. Additionally, the programme fosters effective communication and collaboration while promoting inclusiveness among 500 participants of diverse backgrounds and age groups through structured practice and performance.

(Note: For safety assurance, only foam Nunchaku will be utilised throughout this programme.)
