◆ Gifted Programme Introduction

This workshop is designed to enhance students' general understanding of earth sciences and inspire its practical application in daily life. Through engaging activities and hands-on workshops, it fosters a deep interest in earth and planetary sciences, encouraging students to analyze real-world experiences through an earth sciences lens. Participants will gain the skills to apply earth sciences knowledge in diverse contexts and develop a plan for further study in disciplines like geology, paleontology, climatic science, or planetary sciences. The workshop also offers guidance on higher education pathways and provides mentorship to students with strong potential to pursue careers as geoscientists, ensuring long-term support for their academic and professional growth.
