Anti-doxxing Education Talk

Representative of the Office of the Privacy Commissioner for Personal Data Privacy

Application Deadline

18 Aug 2025

12:00 noon

Intended Learning Outcomes

Upon completion of the gifted programme, gifted students should be able to:

1. Recognise the seriousness of cyberbullying and doxxing crimes;
2. Develop the awareness of personal data protection and the correct attitude of saying “no” to cyberbullying and doxxing.

◆ Gifted Programme Introduction

The development of information technology has rapidly changed our lives, and online activities have become an indispensable part of the daily life of youngsters. However, cyberbullying and doxxing occur from time to time, which may affect and harm them.

In order to let secondary school students understand the seriousness of cyberbullying and doxxing crimes, raise their awareness of personal data protection when using social media, and cultivate their correct attitude of saying “no” to cyberbullying and doxxing, the Office of the Privacy Commissioner for Personal Data Privacy (PCPD) specially organises this Anti-doxxing Education Talk to elaborate on relevant information to secondary school students.
