Leadership Training Programme Series

◆ Gifted Programme Introduction

JPC Leadership Training Camp is one of the core programmes of the Leadership Training Programme Series, designed to nurture the next generation of leaders through a comprehensive and dynamic learning experience. The camp offers a wide variety of adventure-based activities aimed at enhancing participants' leadership skills, teamwork, and decision-making abilities. By engaging in challenging and thought-provoking exercises, participants will develop their capacity for innovative thinking, logical reasoning, and effective problem-solving.

The programme emphasises discipline, resilience, and civic duty, essential for personal growth and success. Participants will deepen their understanding of their roles in public safety and fostering a harmonious society, while activities promote national security awareness, social responsibility, and pride in community contribution.

By the end of the programme, participants will emerge not only as confident and capable leaders but also as proactive citizens, ready to make meaningful contributions to their communities and society at large.
