Intended Learning Outcomes

Upon completion of the programme, the participants should be able to:

1. Demonstrate active listening and empathetic communication to build rapport and understand the needs of specific Hong Kong community groups facing social issues.
2. Deliver persuasive and well-structured presentations that advocate for a proposed solution, integrating research and community insights to propose impactful solutions.
3. Acquire practical skills in project planning, problem-solving, and teamwork to develop and implement initiatives that drive meaningful social change.

◆ Gifted Programme Introduction

This leadership workshop is one of the core programmes of the Leadership Training Programme Series. It is designed for gifted students who aspire to create meaningful social change. With a strong focus on developing self-awareness and emotional intelligence, it integrates the study of community leaders' character and values, interactions with social leaders driving impactful transformation, and immersive field visits. Through this approach, students can delve into the world of social change, gaining a deeper understanding of their potential to make a positive impact in their community and beyond.

This programme content is identical to F1LEA017W2 and taught in Cantonese. Applicants who submit duplicate applications will not be admitted.
