From Score to Stage- The Magic of Conducting

Mr Stephen Lam

Artistic Director and Principal Conductor of the Ponte Orchestra and Singers

Application Deadline

29 Dec 2025

12:00 noon

Intended Learning Outcomes

Upon completion of the gifted programme, gifted students should be able to:

1. Describe the job nature, essential skills (e.g. adaptability and non-verbal communication skills) , and challenges of a conductor;
2. Illustrate the learning path and skill tree to becoming a conductor;
3. Develop a further study plan in music disciplines.

◆ Gifted Programme Introduction

This talk will guide students on an in-depth exploration of the world of conductors, revealing how the soul of music is awakened. Through the sharing of a professional conductor, students will discover how conductors fuse power with finesse through body language, coordinating the orchestra to collaboratively create moving music. Students will learn about the adaptability and non-verbal communication skills essential for conductors, and understand the learning path to becoming a conductor.

The speaker, Mr. Stephen Lam, is a distinguished conductor from Hong Kong and was recently selected by Riccardo Muti as one of his students to participate in the opera production of his Italian Opera Academy. Described as “undoubtedly a man of passion who lives for the music...” (Adam Rozlach, Polish Radio), he is actively promoting the European classical music tradition in Hong Kong, Macau, the Chinese Mainland and in the East Asia. Lam is currently the Artistic Director and Principal Conductor of the Ponte Orchestra and Singers, as well as conductor of the Macao Youth Symphony Orchestra.
