◆ Introduction

Join us for Hong Kong's annual innovation extravaganza, "InnoCarnival 2025," and explore the latest technologies in the industry! [\[Website\]](#)

This workshop includes a visit to the InnoCarnival led by staff from the Hong Kong Academy for Gifted Education, as well as a visit to a technology innovation company. The carnival is organized by the Innovation and Technology Commission of the HKSAR Government and brings together stakeholders from different sectors. It features a variety of interactive and educational activities related to innovation and technology, including local inventions, workshops, and interactive games. These activities offer an opportunity to learn more about how technology innovation companies operate and showcase their latest products.

By joining the guided tour, you will have exclusive opportunities to experience the newest technologies firsthand and explore the various highlights of the exhibition. The tour guide will facilitate connections between you and the exhibitors, ensuring a unique and enriching experience.

Join now to witness and experience cutting-edge technology in the innovation and tech sector firsthand.
