Intended Learning Outcomes

Upon completion of the gifted programme, gifted students should be able to:

1. list at least three behavioural characteristics of students with special educational needs (sen).
2. apply appropriate strategies and skills to lead a social skills activity for students with sen.
3. describe the support services and resources available for students with sen.
4. reflect critically on personal perspectives and concerns regarding inclusive education.

◆ Gifted Programme Introduction

As one of the core programmes in the Leadership Training Programme Series 2025/26, this workshop focuses on the theme of inclusion.

This service-learning programme is designed to deepen students' awareness and understanding of special educational needs (SEN). Participants will begin with a visit to the resource centre, where staff will introduce the characteristics of students with SEN. Following this, participants will design and lead social skills activities, strengthening their leadership abilities while learning how to guide and support diverse groups. Through this experience, students will cultivate empathy, teamwork, and practical problem-solving skills.
