Intended Learning Outcomes

Upon completion of the programme, gifted students should be able to:

1. Identify and understand key information about two signature programmes: the Hong Kong Gifted Apprentice Programme (HKGAP) and Academy's Got Talents (STEAM);

2. Select and plan a suitable programme to support their own learning and personal development;

3. Reflect on their individual talents and qualities to enhance self-awareness and growth.

◆ Introduction

This Information Day serves as a programme briefing session for the Hong Kong Gifted Apprentice Programme (HKGAP) and Academy's Got Talents (STEAM). Each programme's structure and schedule will be introduced. Previous apprentices and student members will be invited to share their experience.

What is HKGAP?

HKGAP is a unique 2-year mentorship programme that connects students with experts to pursue a self-initiated and specialised project.

Benefits:
- Network within professional communities;
- Master your interest with advanced knowledge;
- Transform ideas into real-world solutions.

For further details, please refer to the flyer.

What is Academy's Got Talents (STEAM)?

This programme identifies student members or teams who will have the opportunity to participate in upcoming STEAM-related competitions or programmes.

Benefits:
- Obtain more opportunities to participate in future STEAM-related competitions or programmes;
- Promote self-initiated learning and reflective skills.
