[ Gifted Programme ]

Archaeology Course (Level IV)

Discover Underwater Archaeology and Artefact Restoration (Phase 2)

Institute of Hong Kong Underwater
Archaeology Research

Application Deadline
23 Mar 2026 12:00 noon

Result Release
27 Mar 2026

Intended Learning Outcomes

Upon completion of the gifted programme, gifted students should be able to:

1. describe Chinese shipwreck, shipbuilding technology, trading ports and the significance of Maritime Silk Road;
2. illustrate diving theory and equipment;
3. outline underwater archaeological excavation in real practice; and
4. enhance analytical skills and national awareness.

◆ Gifted Programme Introduction

This programme will lead students on an in-depth exploration of the world of underwater archaeology, lifting the veil on the professional field of artefact conservation from theoretical foundations to practical techniques. In Phase 1, students were introduced to the basic theories of Chinese underwater archaeology, as well as practical skills such as underwater archaeological photography and artefact illustration.

Here we go to Phase 2, students will have the chance to see local artefacts in person and learn the stories behind them. They will also be able to go out to sea to observe live demonstrations of underwater archaeological procedures at close range, gaining a deeper understanding of the challenges involved in underwater archaeological work.

The course consists of THREE phases, and this is the 2nd phase. Participants who perform outstandingly will be given priority in entering the third phase, which includes a special underwater archaeology diving experience. Selection for each phase will be based on students' performance. Phase 3 is tentatively scheduled as below:

every Wed & Sat from 4 Jul to 5 Aug 2026
