◆ Gifted Programme Introduction

As the first private museum in the Southern District, GuWei Museum celebrates the interconnectedness of global art and culture through its exhibits. Featuring a remarkable collection of over 1,000 artifacts from various historical periods and regions, including ceramics, silverware, paintings, textiles, and jewels, the museum seamlessly blends education, cultural exchange, and leisure. Through these precious antiquities, the history and diverse cultures of global regions come alive. In this workshop, students will first visit the exhibition hall by following a guided tour. Afterwards, students will participate in a workshop about arts of Dunhuang.
