

Parent Workshop: Whole Person Development of Gifted Children (F1PWP001W)

Introduction

This is the first workshop of a series of parent workshop with a purpose of exploring with parents practical ways and skills that their children need to recognize and acquire during the process of their whole person development. In each of this series of workshop, the facilitator will give participants opportunities to share if their children have any difficulties in acquiring wisdom in life, developing necessary responsibility and perseverance in life, acquiring crises management skills in life, building desirable habits in life, or building desirable mindsets in life. Hence, the facilitator will enlighten the participants with useful ways or skills in promoting all those qualities mentioned, so that participants will know how to guide their children in enhancing those qualities in their whole person development journey.
